

I do NOT support the proposed changes in the ownership rules. Media ownership is already more concentrated than it should be. We need more local ownership so that the media understand, represent, and meet the needs of the local community.